We position ourselves rightly to pray for the peace, prosperity, and posterity of our nation...

I thank you, Lord, that it is written that Christ's resurrection is our resurrection too. We ask you to cause hearts to turn to you, oh Lord, across this nation. Cause our hearts, Lord, to yearn for all that is above where Christ sits enthroned at the place of all power, honor, and authority! Help us, Lord, to daily discipline ourselves to feast on all the treasures of the heavenly realm and fill our thoughts with heavenly realities, and not with the distractions of the natural realm.

It is written that our crucifixion with Christ has severed the tie to this life, and now our true life is hidden away in God in Christ. And as Christ himself is seen for who he really is, reveal to us powerfully, Oh Lord, who we really are, teaching us how to lay hold of that reality and to walk in the revelation of being one with him in his glory in this present age!

Give us the hearts to truly live as one who has died to every form of sexual sin and impurity. Demonstrate in us and through us Lord what it is to live as one who died to diseases and desires for forbidden things, including the lust of earthly wealth and possessions, which is the essence of covetousness or idol worship. Forgive us Lord where we may have pursued or lived in these vices which ignite acts of disobedience.

Yes, we recognize that it is how we once behaved, characterized by evil deeds. We come before you now with a vow to eliminate them from our lives once and for all—anger, fits of rage, all forms of hatred, cursing, filthy speech, and lying. From today forward, as you empower us by your Holy Spirit, we lay aside our old Adam-selves with its masquerades and disguises.

Thank you, Lord, that In Christ, we have truly acquired new creation life which is continually being renewed into the likeness of the One who created us, giving us the full revelation of God.

According to your Word, it is written that in this new creation life, nationality makes no difference, or ethnicity, education, or economic status—they matter nothing in the Kingdom of God. You have declared in your Word that it is Christ that means everything as he lives in every one of us! Help us Lord to develop this truth inside of us, renewing the mind to your Word, will, and way.

We believe, receive, and confess (that is to state, declare, and decree) these Truths. We pray that our nation, this nation, and all nations, will have eyes to see, ears to hear, and hearts that are open and receptive to Your Word; we pray that hearts will experience the outpouring of the Love of The One True Living God, as they see this Truth exhibited in us and through our lives, bringing glory to you Father.

We Commit to Love One Another

Thank You Lord that we are always and dearly loved by You! According to your Word, we robe ourselves with the virtues of God because we have been divinely chosen to be holy. We declare that we shall, in obedience to your Word, be merciful as we purpose to understand others, and be compassionate, showing kindness toward all. We set our faith in agreement with your Word which instructs us to be gentle and humble, unoffendable in our patience with others. Lord, by Your Spirit, we appropriate the divine ability to extend grace for the weaknesses of those in the family of faith, forgiving one another in the same way You have graciously forgiven us by Jesus Christ. For those we have found fault with, we right now release this same gift of forgiveness to them.

We agree with Your Word and declare that your Love is supreme and must flow through each of these virtues. We choose this day to love you, serve you only, and in obedience to your commands, to truly learn to love our neighbor as ourselves.

Thank you, Lord, that you are teaching and revealing to our hearts in this hour and forever that it is Love which becomes the mark of true maturity.

Lord, let our hearts be always guided by the peace of the Anointed One, who called us to peace as part of his one body. And, on purpose, we choose to always be thankful.

Lord, let the word of Christ live in us and in this nation richly, flooding us, and our leaders with all Godly wisdom.

With clean hearts eager to Love, we confess a renewed commitment to apply the Scriptures as we teach, instruct, exhort, and encourage one another with the Psalms, and with festive praises, and with prophetic songs given to us spontaneously by the Spirit, so we shall sing to God with all our hearts!

Let every activity of our lives and every word that comes from our lips be drenched with the beauty of our Lord Jesus, the Anointed One. And let us bring constant praise to God the Father because of what Christ has done for us!

We Commit to Fostering Loving Relationships

Within your Body Lord, as an example and testimony to our nation and the nations, we pray that every wife be supportive and tenderly devoted to her husband, for this is a beautiful illustration of our devotion to Christ. We pray that within your Body Lord, every husband be filled with cherishing love for his wife and never be insensitive toward her.

Lord we pray that our children honor, obey and pay attention to their parents in everything, for it is written that this pleases our Lord Jesus, and according to Your Word, it will go well with them. We pray for fathers especially in this hour; we pray that they appropriate your extended grace so that they won't exasperate the children with demands that are trivial, unbiblical, humiliating, or abusive. But we pray that they train them tenderly with lovingkindness, so they will not lose heart and become discouraged.

We pray Lord, that every employee listens well and follow the instructions of their employer, not just when their employers are watching, and not in pretense, but faithful in all things. We pray on purpose, Lord, to renew our hearts and minds with the washing of your Word, Lord, that we live our lives with pure hearts in the constant awe and wonder of our Lord God!

Today Lord, and each day forward, as it is written, we put our heart and soul into every activity, committed to do each as though we are doing it for You, Lord, and not merely for others.

We thank you Oh God! For we know according to your Word that we will receive a reward, an inheritance from You, the Lord, as we serve You, the Anointed One! You have declared in your Word that a disciple will be repaid for what he has learned and followed, for you oh God pay no attention to the titles or prestige of men. We thank you Lord that you are faithful to fulfill your Word in our lives. We thank you Lord, for changing us into the image of your dear Son, and we declare according to your Word (Philippians 1:6), we can be confident of this very thing: You, who did begin in us a good work, will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

As we are changed, let us be the seeds for that harvest of change in our nation and influencers in all nations. You declared in your Word, Lord Jesus (Mark 11:24-25 AMP), whatever things we ask for in prayer in accordance with God's will, acknowledging that Your Word is your will, to believe with confident trust that we received them, and they will be given unto us. As instructed in the Word, we have (above) forgiven all ought and offense against us and are indeed forgiven and reconciled in Christ; therefore, we do boldly come with freedom, before your throne of grace to obtain mercy, receive kindness, and find the grace we so urgently need to strengthen us. We believe we receive your answer to our prayers for peace and our confident expectation and declaration is that your grace shall be manifested in our nation... this nation, one nation under God, indivisible with liberty and justice for all. God bless the United of America! May your Kingdom come, and your will be done in earth as it is in heaven. Amen, so be it!

(The above prayer and declarations were formed using scripture passages primarily found in Colossians, Chapter 3, with additional verses and passages also added in as indicated, with multiple translations represented in the prayer text; this is provided for use by prayer teams in praying corporately for our families, our communities, our states, and our nation(s) in order to influence all nations with the love and peace of God through the gospel of Jesus Christ.)
